

Dear Passengers,

1. This information has been prepared with reference to the passenger rights regulations which are applicable on journeys operated by Pegasus Airlines in Turkey, the European Union, the United Kingdom and other relevant national and international civil aviation jurisdictions. It aims to inform you of the rights you are entitled to in the following circumstances:
  - 1.1 when you are denied boarding except in the situations permitted by statutory regulations or
  - 1.2 your flight is cancelled or
  - 1.3 your flight is delayed and takes place later than scheduled (this includes delays due to your aircraft landing in a different location than the one scheduled and missing a connecting flight)
2. To be eligible for these rights, you must have a valid ticket for the relevant Pegasus Airlines flight and must be at pre-flight security control: at least 45 minutes before the scheduled departure time for domestic scheduled flights; at least 60 minutes before the scheduled departure time for international scheduled flights; and within the check-in times stated by Pegasus Airlines for charter flights.
3. The services outlined here may be delivered to you by Pegasus Airlines, or tour operators or ground crew authorised to act on behalf of Pegasus Airlines.
4. Pegasus Airlines gives priority to unaccompanied children, people with disabilities or restricted mobility, together with their companions and guide dogs certified to accompany passengers in this category. This applies to both carriage and the provision of other services.
5. There is only one service class in all journeys operated by Pegasus Airlines. Therefore, passengers will not be offered a difference service class to the one they have made a reservation for.

IMPORTANT WARNINGS AND EXEMPTIONS

6. Passengers who are not allowed to board their flight for justifiable reasons such as health, safety, security or not having appropriate travel documents do not qualify for the rights specified here.
7. Compensation is not paid by our airline if flight disruptions occur, despite our airline taking all precautions, due to exceptional circumstances. Exceptional circumstances may arise when operations are affected by political instability, unsuitable meteorological conditions for the flight, natural disasters, security risks, unexpected flight safety issues, strikes, air traffic and airport restrictions.
8. Pegasus Airlines takes no responsibility for not being able to contact passengers if, despite their contact details being requested, the information is not provided or is incorrect.

We thank you for your understanding,

Pegasus Airlines
